

PROTECT YOUR FAMILY!

SOLVE THIS LYME DISEASE PUZZLE:

Lyme disease is caused by the bite of an infected _____.
 You can protect your family with good _____ tips to help avoid the bite!

Ticks usually live in the _____ but can also be attached to animals such as _____, _____ and deer. They live in the country and in the _____, maybe even on your family _____!

Ticks can be very _____. When going for a walk or hike, use _____ repellent and wear light-coloured _____ so ticks are more visible when you do a tick _____. Tuck your _____ in your _____, and wear long _____.

After a bite, some people see a _____ that may look like a _____. Other people feel very _____ like having the flu and get lots of _____.

If you think you have seen a tick, talk to an _____ because it is important to find and treat a _____ immediately. Go to www.AlbertaLyme.org for safe ways to _____ a tick. Take the tick to your _____ for testing to remind them ticks are in _____.

mice	insect	sleeves	tiny	pants
socks	remove	bite	rash	tired
bullseye	grass	tick	check	birds
prevention	deer	seed	clothing	headaches
city	adult	Alberta	doctor	pet

www.AlbertaLyme.org